

NEW MIGRATION TRENDS AND POLICY CHALLENGES IN THE MEDITERRANEAN A dialogue between European and African experts

International workshop in the framework of the project "Managing migration in the Neighbourhood of the EU and the US. Towards a Transatlantic forum for comparative Research and policy dialogue"

(Academy of Graduate Studies, Tripoli, 18-19 June 2008)

First Day Wednesday 18/6/2008

Time	Activity
10:00 – 10:30	Welcome addresses and presentation of the workshop: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dr. Saleh Ibrahim • Prof. Mustafa Attir • Dr. Ferruccio Pastore
10:30 – 11:00	Coffee Break
11:00 – 13:00	First session: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The present Movement of Individuals to and from Libya Illegally, An Introduction Statement, Prof. Mustafa Attir • "Europe and North Africa: Migration as a common challenge", Introductory presentation, Prof. Ferruccio Pastore • "The concept and reality of transit migration in the EU neighbourhood", Prof. Franck Duvell • A study of a group of illegal immigrants from Nigerian in southern Libya, Dr. Basher Abughila • Social and security problems of illegal migration, Dr. Mustafa Kara
	Discussion
13:00 – 14:30	Buffet Lunch
14:30 – 16:30	Second session: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • "New trends in transit migration and migration policies in Turkey", Dr. Ahmet Icduygu • "New migratory trends and policy responses in Egypt", Dr. Ayman Zohry • Aspects of demographic unbalance and its future impact on illegal migration, Dr. Othman Omaiman
16:30 – 16:45	Discussion
	Conclusion