

Migration, Remittances and Possible Return of Ethiopian Domestic Workers in Lebanon

Wednesday 17th of June, 2020

11.00 – 12:30 (Beirut Time) / 10.00 – 11.30 (Rome time)

Webinar on Ethiopian Migrant Domestic Workers (MDW) in Lebanon, with a focus on the National Legal Framework and the tenacity of the kafala system, a qualitative analysis of different migrant DW profiles and trajectories and their remittance behavior, and an updated reflection on the impact of the present financial crisis and Covid-19 for domestic female labour migrations in Lebanon.

Opening

Antonio Buzzelli

Country Representative CELIM in Lebanon

Presentation of the Lebanon Study

Karim El Mufti, Director of the Human Rights Legal Clinic, Law Faculty, La Sagesse University
& Senior Researcher in Human Rights

Discussants

Zeina Mezher, ILO Regional Office Beirut

Zeina Mohanna, Professor at the American University of Beirut
& Head of the MDWs Program at Amel Association

Tigiste Chemales, Representative of the Ethiopian female community in Lebanon

Ali El Amine, Head of SORAL (Syndicate of Recruitment Agencies in Lebanon)

Noha Roukoss, Social worker at Caritas Lebanon

Moderator

Anna Ferro and Lorenzo Coslovi, CeSPI

Within the project “Securing Women Migration Cycle - Assistance, Protection and Return Program for Migrant Women between Lebanon and Ethiopia”, led by Italian NGO CELIM and financed by the Italian Agency for Cooperation and Development

REGISTRATION – After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the webinar